

6. Here in Our Upper Room

Here in our upper room with you,
Around your hallowed table,
Lord, may we with deep humility fulfill the precepts of your word.

As you our bless'd Example, taught,
we kneel to serve our neighbor's need,
the cleansing of your Spirit
sought in heart and mind,
in thought and deed.

We share with you the feast of love
as hearts are knit in one accord.
Oh, may your Spirit in us move our wills to love you more, dear Lord.

With heart, and not with hands alone,
we keep the ordinance a new,
and through these sacred symbols
prove in serving others we serve you.

7. Jesus, Remember Me

Jesus, remember me
When you come into your kingdom.
Jesus, remember me
When you come into your kingdom.

1. Move in Our Midst

Move in our midst, thou Spirit of God.
Go with us down from thy holy hill.
Walk with us through the storm and the calm.
Spirit of God, go thou with us still.

2 Touch thou our hands to lead us aright.
Guide us forever, show us thy way.
Transform our darkness into thy light.
Spirit of God, lead thou us today.

3 Strike from our feet the fetters that bind.
Lift from our lives the weight of our wrong.
Teach us to love with heart, soul, and mind.
Spirit of God, thy love makes us strong.

4 Kindle our hearts to burn with thy flame.
Raise up thy banners high in this hour.
Stir us to build new worlds in thy name.

2. Jesu, Jesu

Refrain:

Jesu, Jesu, fill us with your love, show us how to serve
The neighbors we have from you.

Kneels at the feet of his friends,
Silently washes their feet,
Master who acts as a slave to them.
(Refrain)

Neighbors are rich and poor,
Neighbors are black and white,
Neighbors are near and far away.
(Refrain)

Jesu, Jesu—continued

These are the ones we should serve,
These are the ones we should love;
All these are neighbors to us and you.
(Refrain)

Loving puts us on our knees,
Serving as though we are slaves,
This is the way we should live with you.
(Refrain)

Kneel at the feet of our friends,
Silently washing their feet;
This is the way we should live with you.

3. O Master, Let Me Walk With Thee

O Master, let me walk with thee
in lowly paths of service free;
tell me thy secret; help me bear
the strain of toil, the fret of care.

Teach me thy patience; still with thee
in closer, dearer company,
in work that keeps faith sweet and strong,
in trust that triumphs over wrong;

In hope that sends a shining ray
far down the future's broadening way,
in peace that only thou canst give,
with thee, O Master, let me live.

4. Have Thine Own Way, Lord

Have thine own way, Lord! Have Thine own way!
Thou art the potter, I am the clay.
Mold me and make me after thy will,
While I am waiting, yielded and still.

Have Thine own way, Lord—continued

Have Thine own way, Lord! Have Thine own way!
Search me and try me, Master, today!
Whiter than snow, Lord, wash me just now,
As in thy presence humbly I bow.

Have Thine own way, Lord! Have Thine own way!
Wounded and weary, help me, I pray!
Power, all power, surely is thine!
Touch me and heal me, Savior divine!

Have Thine own way, Lord! Have Thine own way!
Hold o'er my being absolute sway!
Fill with thy Spirit till all shall see
Christ only, always, living in me!

5. When I Survey the Wondrous Cross

When I survey the wondrous cross
on which the Prince of Glory died;
my richest gain I count but loss,
and pour contempt on all my pride.

Forbid it, Lord, that I should boast,
save in the death of Christ, my God;
all the vain things that charm me most,
I sacrifice them to his blood.

See, from his head, his hands, his feet,
sorrow and love flow mingled down.
Did e'er such love and sorrow meet,
or thorns compose so rich a crown?

Were the whole realm of nature mine,
that were an offering far too small;
love so amazing, so divine,
demands my soul, my life, my all.
